

Alvin Moisey has performed and cycled in all four corners of the globe. Since taking first prize in London's Royal Overseas League piano competition in 1989 he has given recitals in many of the world's most prestigious venues, including New York's Carnegie Recital Hall, London's Wigmore Hall, South Bank and St. John's Smith Square, the Paris Louvre and Tel-Aviv Opera House, as well as on radio and TV stations throughout Europe, Japan and greatest violinists, including Shlomo Mintz, Ida Haendel and Sayaka Shoji, with whom he has given recitals in London, Geneva, Tel-Aviv, Paris and Tokyo.

Programme

Chopin Ballade no. 1

Debussy Images Book I

Bartok Ostinato & Bulgarian Dance

Gershwin Rhapsody in Blue

7-yr-old goes for world record!

Give Joshua a helping hand on his way to becoming the youngest ever Land's End to John o' Groats cyclist, alongside older brother Reuben and even older parents Alvin and Hiroko. Please visit the website below to make a donation to Alzheimer's Society.

www.justgiving.com/fundraising/7-for-the-record

